

Ponca City Public Schools Names New Boys Basketball Coach

The Ponca City Public School District has named Keenan Curry as the new Wildcat Boys Basketball Coach for the 2017-2018 school year. He will replace Dale Hibler who recently retired.

“I am very honored and blessed to be named the next head boys basketball coach at Ponca City High School,” said Curry. “I want to thank Principal, Thad Dilbeck, Athletic Director, Jared Freeman, and the entire Po-Hi community for all their support. I am looking forward to getting to work right away with players, parents, administration and the community.” You can read more about Coach Curry in the Ponca City News articles below.
