

East Middle School Names Most Valuable Students for First Semester

The administration of East Middle School announced today that Mike Hernandez, Alexis Irons, Emma Kimbrel, Joseph LaRue, Payton Little, Cash Nichols, Keirston Oakley, Ashlee Patterson, Breann Ross, Landon Varner, Jacksen Vogt and Anna Willis have been named by the faculty to receive the East Middle School Most Valuable Student Award for the first semester.

An M.V.S. nominee is a student who has demonstrated high academic achievement, outstanding leadership and citizenship characteristics during the previous semester. An M.V.S. Certificate from the school was presented by Principal Tami Flaspohler to these talented eighth graders.

PICTURE CAPTION:

Row 1: Payton Little, Emma Kimbrel, Keirston Oakley, Alexis Irons

Row 2: Breann Ross, Ashlee Patterson, Anna Willis

Row 3: Joseph LaRue, Cash Nichols, Mike Hernandez, Jacksen Vogt

Not Pictured: Landon Varner