Ponca City Schools Partner With District Attorney's Office to Discuss How Oklahoma Laws Relate to Secondary Students

On January 16 and 17, 2018, Brian Hermanson, District Attorney and David Wilkie, Assistant District Attorney with the Kay County District Attorney's Office are scheduled to meet with groups of 8th through 12th grade students about Oklahoma Laws and how they relate to secondary students. AD Hermanson and ADA Wilkie will also talk to the groups about how to proactively avoid compromising situations including the use of electronic communication.

"Teenagers today have access to a global world, and we want our students to understand pitfalls they could face and how to make good choices," said Ponca City School Superintendent Shelley Arrott. "The DA's Office and the Ponca City Public School District are partnering together to inform our students of the implications of how their decisions can impact their lives. If you have any questions or would like more information, please contact any of the PCPS administrators listed below."
