

West Middle School Student Promotes Autism Awareness Month

April is National Autism Awareness Month. West Middle School Student Josh Henry spent several months raising money to purchase a banner to hang at West Middle School. He also raised enough money to purchase every student at West Middle School a wristband to promote Autism Awareness Month.

Picture: Josh Henry with banner he donated; hanging in WMS cafeteria.